Jeanette, your stories are the reason the day of remembrance in Deuteronomy is so important. When we relive and retell of the victories and successes God has given us, we become stronger. The fact is your Fruit Wars are a source of strength to all who read them in the same way the story of the ax handle, the sun standing still, and the escape from the fiery furnace are strengths. When the enemy comes, we can recount those awesome deeds of God, and say to the enemy, You remember how Jehovah worked for Jeanette? Well I m in her family, and our Father has no favorites, so her victory is my victory. We all have our own stories, but the shared experiences of our family serve to strengthen us. The Fruit Wars are devotionals based on Jesus teaching in John 15:5 which says, I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. If you enjoyed The Fruit Wars, you will definitely enjoy reading this next volume, The Fruit Wars 2. Jeanette Duby has compiled some of her favorite stories around the campfire. Jeanette shares the Word of God through these delightful and humorous stories, including the many adventures she and her daughter shared in their beat up camper. The Fruit Wars series is based on John 15:5. The Fruit Wars comes out of the struggles we face every day to bear fruit, fruit that will last.
