The author is a UK lawyer and English teacher and has many years of experience in legal practice and in training foreign lawyers and business professionals. Heres what some our students from around the world are saying about our books: I was impressed by their ability to simplify a topic as vast and complicated as law. I was able to grasp the key elements because of the engaging manner and by giving relevant real life examples. I was really impressed with the knowledge of commercial law and the ability to explain complex matters of law in an easily understandable and interactive way. I...
