Reviews

Comprehensive guide! Its this type of very good read through. It is actually writter in simple words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt: .his hand against her hueless lips, She prayed him for the love of her, his wife, For love of all his children, he would go, So that he yielded. Loth was he to part; The coward dread for self that shamed him first Had left his heart, and now for her he feared, Her and her maidens; still she pressed him sore, Until he thought, They seek my life, not hers; Then with one agonising last embrace Stepped to the vault, and dropped, and Catherine cried, They come! quick, quick! the plank! I bar the door. A moment listening by the door she stood, Then stooped and groped around, and rose again With a sick misery in her blue eyes, And haggard lines upon her working face, Muttering, The bar is gone, and all is lost! Bewildered, terrified, she only thought Of safety for the king, and not to shock The other weaker women with the news, So stood irresolute 5 and up the stair Tramped loud the sound of arms and weapon clash, While ever whooped the Grahame midst the din, Hounding his bandogs on the royal hart. On Catherine s face there came a sterner look, A wild smile faintly flickered o er her lips, High thoughts and worthy of a noble soul Were rising in her heart, - she bared her arm, Her round right arm, her soft blue-veined arm, And thrust it through the staples of the door. Ioanna and her...
