Mr. Skinner had a settlement of three hundred dollars, and an annual salary of six hundred dollars, from which in a few years he saved enough to enable him to purchase a farm. He bought the house and lot at the corner of East and Smalley streets, and afterward purchased other real estate. He was a good farmer, and by economy and good management accumulated property, 4, , 7 3 at his death in 1825 M aw) was inventoried at ten thousand dollars. During Mr. Skinner's ministry of fifteen years the changes in the place which had commenced in the latter part of Dr. Smalleys pastorate were becoming more marked. The present centre of the town and city was gradually transforming from a staid farming community into a thrifty manufacturing village. Thought was quickened, new enterprises were planned, the proportion of young...
