Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Colonel Stephen Balliet, Vol. 1: Soldier, Patriot and Statesman of the Revolution Fellow Members of the Lehigh County Historical Society; Ladies and Gentlemen: The name of Stephen Balliet is, I am sure, familiar to every member of our Society, and to every citizen of (Lehigh and Northampton Counties claiming descent from the old Colonial and Revolutionary families. If, however, you were asked to give an account of his career you would, I greatly fear, be compelled to acknowledge that you remembered him only as a legendary hero of the Lehigh Valley, a man of distinction, highly honored, who had done great things in his day and generation, the memory of which had come down to you in a traditional way, but which, like all things traditional, was a very hazy and indefinite thing. Though you were quite sure that he was something more than a mere legendary character you would find it impossible to relate the incidents of his public life, to say nothing of his family history, if you relied upon the printed page for a complete record of his services. A few years ago I would have made this same confession, had I too been asked for a definite account of his life. My interest in his career had been aroused from my boyhood days, and I sought diligently to find a sketch of it in the publications of his and of our own day, but without avail. Saving the bare announcement of his death, and a very brief and imperfect outline of his public life in the newspapers of the day, more particularly that in the Allentown Friedens-Bote, published in the German...
