You spoke of the engineer students, and you said that you thought they ought to have more experience in the reserve, could you give any idea as to how you would enable them to gain that experience before sending them to sea--They would have to go on every trial trip. I do not know whether the (The witnet government would think it worth while to place a Mr. J. B. steam vessel at their disposal, in order that they Stevcus, K. N. might learn the working of machinery, but I think it . is possible that it might pay. 3 JNor-18 4919. Do not you think it would be well, if, for six months they were attached to a ship, not as part of the...
