Night brought heavy rain, and apparently a complete break up of the weather. From Hereford new combinations were formed for the homeward journey, which may be noted on another day. The Welsh section of the tour was immensely enjoyed by both members, and they would recommend a similar route to anyone in search of good air and scenery and satisfied with moderate distances. Lieut. CHANGES OF ADDRESS. J. W. Wilson s address is now Wyddrington, Birmingham. Walter S. Meyer s address is at present 124, Wood Street, E.C., and he now resides in the W. District. ECHOES. I hope our Northern members will turn up well at Ewell. They should not forget that out of the five General Meets they have four north of the Thames. The Southern men were willing to forego the pleasure of seeing...
