Foster, of Connecticut, on the Lecompton Constitution: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, March 8 and 19, 1858 Senate having under consideration, as in Committee of the Whole, the bill tor the admission of Kansas into the Union as a State - Mr. Foster said; Mr. President: After the intimation which was given us by the honorable Senator from Missouri, representing the majority of the Territorial Committee, that the vote on this question is to be taken on Monday next, it struck me that those who proposed to be heard on this subject had better be prompt in their action. I certainly received it as kind in the honorable Senator to give us this early notice; for I was one of those who had been making some preparation to address the Senate upon the subject now pending. I have made some few notes and memoranda on the subject, but I had not expected to speak upon it to-day, and I have not those notes or memoranda here; but, sir, I have before me the constitution which it is proposed to impose on the people of Kansas by this body, and I desire to call the attention of the Senate for a few moments to that constitution, and to urge a few of the reasons why I, as a member of the Senate, can never vote to admit Kansas under that constitution with the provisions and principles which it contains, though everything else in regard to the subject was as I could wish it to be. In the first place, I cannot vote to admit a State into...
