Have you ever planned for a trip? You have to think about all sorts of things. Some have more to do in order to plan for a trip than others, but in my house planning includes a number of things. For me I have to plan out my itinerary so I know where I am going and what I am doing when I get there. I have to plan for lodging, medicine, make sure I pack enough clothes, think about what I might need and plan for what might happen like falling in the mud, or ripping my pants. I have to plan for how much it will cost me for food, for lodging, for gas, spending cash, and extras just in case of emergency. I have to make sure the car has a check-up. In accordance with the weather I may need to plan for breaking down and so I may pack water, extra insulation, and I make a list of the emergency contact numbers I may have to use. At work I have to get someone to cover for me and I leave emergency contact numbers in case I am needed. If the family comes along, then the list gets longer and longer. If planning for a trip that might last a few days to a few weeks takes that much effort and time, then doesn't it make sense to follow a plan for your life as a Christian? When Jesus calls us to deny ourselves, take up our cross daily and follow him there is some intentionality of thought and action that we must apply to our life. When He calls us to make disciples...
