Excerpt: . . . take sides with Tomlinson, but also Governor Martin went so far as to say that he wished that the Act incorporating the trustees would be repealed for their conduct. 68 The people of New Bern and its vicinity drove away one of their best citizens. De Rossett says: Mr. Tomlinson must be placed at the head of the line of professional teachers whose work has gone into the history of North Carolina. There had been ministers, before his day, or contemporary with him, who, acting also as school teachers, had done and were doing an incalculable work for the State, which was to be in training to guide and govern it in its development to wealth and power, but so far as the writer is informed, Mr. Tomlinson was the first professional teacher who had under his training a large element of the youth of the colony. New Bern and the district about it were fruitful of men of eminence and of influence in the end of the eighteenth and the beginning of the nineteenth centuries. Many of these must have laid the foundation of their intellectual and moral training in the New Bern Academy between the years 17 64 and 1772, while Mr. Tomlinson presided as master<sup>69</sup> Governor Tryon said of Mr. Tomlinson that he was the only man in the county who was a true professional school teacher. Not only was Mr. Tomlinson a great professional character in his business, but a...
