Fordham University Press, United States, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 183 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Over the course of five years, the Reserve Officers Association of the United States-the nation s oldest such professional military organization-invited its members to write about their experiences in World War II. The response was an impressive outpouring of memories, now compiled here in an extraordinary record of courage, sacrifice, and commitment.Stories from 240 veterans-representing all theaters, ranks, and services-track the years of World War II month by month. Other veterans tell of surviving the sinking of the troopship Leopoldville, when 750 Americans died in the English Channel on Christmas Eve, 1944; the horrific discovery of the Nazi extermination camps; and the tragic bombings near war s end of unmarked Japanese ships transporting U.S. POWs from the Philippines.Featuring photographs, a chronology,...
